

And Now For Something COMPLETELY DIFFERENT

Offenbach: Geneviève de Brabant

Opera Bouffe en 3 Actes et 9 Tableaux

♪ Couplets des Hommes d'Armes
(Peter, Brian and Keith's version)

Les Beaux Gendarmes (etc.)

*We're really not too intellectual And so we joined the U3A
But frankly it was ineffectual You're passed your prime, they'd always say!*

The advent calendar announces Behold it's Santa time again We've got to watch our pounds and ounces, and scour the land for three Wise Men.

I say, I say, I say....

The Ballad of Idwal Slabs

Jack Buchanan: Everything Stops for Tea

This song featured in the 1935 comedy film “Come Out Of The Pantry” starring Jack Buchanan and Fay Wray

Everything Stops for Tea

You remember
Cleopatra had a date to meet Mark Anthony at three?
When he came an hour late she said *“You’ll have to wait,
for everything stops
for tea!”*

Everything Stops for Tea

It's a very good English custom

And a stimulant for the brain

When you feel a little weary, a cup'll make you cheery

And it's cheaper than champagne!

Everything Stops for Tea

Now I know just why Franz Schubert Didn't finish his unfinished symphony
He might have written more but the clock struck four and everything stopped
for tea!

Gerard Hoffnung: The Bricklayer

...and halfway up, I met the barrel coming down!

My Favourite Things (50 years on)

When the joints ache, when the hips break

When the eyes grow dim

Then I remember the great life I've had

And then I don't feel so bad!

The End
